Skits – If you have a skit; funny, serious, one act plays or...whatever, come prepared as it could be used during times of the services.

Come prepared to have a GREAT time!

Parents Information

We admit campers regardless of their race; color; nationality, or their ethnic origin.

Note to Parents:

Campers are expected to stay the entire camp period except in cases of sickness or emergencies at home. Use of the camp telephone is prohibited. Calls needing to be placed in the event of an emergency may be directed through the camp office (715-924-3236 reference to Pastor Tim Hallett). All other calls are not permitted. Please send mail to the camp's mailing address, including the name of the camper on the front of the envelope:

c/o Camp Chetek, P. O. Box 26, Chetek, WI. 54728.

Health and Safety:

A registered nurse will be on duty at all times. All prescription and over-the-counter medications for campers must be checked in to the nurse upon arrival at camp, and it will be dispensed according to prescription. Please do not send medication unless prescribed by a Doctor. All medication must be kept in their original labeled container for reference. If medications are not in original containers, they will not be dispensed. Campers are covered by accident insurance. The insurance is secondary to the camper's primary insurance. We request that campers with contagious conditions or diseases not attend camp. We appreciate your cooperation in this matter of public health.

Fee Information

The reservation fee is non-refundable; however, it is transferable as a reservation fee for another camper in the same week. In the event a camper leaves camp due to an emergency of some unforeseen and uncontrollable circumstance, a prorated refund will be given as follows: camper leaves Monday, 75% of the camper fee; Tuesday, 50% of camper fee, Wednesday, 25% of camper fee; after Wednesday no refund. Refunds will not be given to a camper who is disciplined out of camp, or for a camper who chooses to leave because they "don't like it here" or it was not what they expected. Refunds and/or reductions of rates are not given to campers who intend on being at camp for part of the week. In this case, the full camper fee is assessed.

Camp Rules

Campers are to demonstrate Christian character as we are to please the Lord and honor Him. Obedience to camp counselors and workers is essential. Campers are to remain on camp grounds at all times. Campers are to attend all services and appropriate activities. The waterfront is off limits except at appropriate times with counselors. Disobedience to these rules or the camp staff may result in campers being sent home at their own expense.
